

Finding History Day Sources at

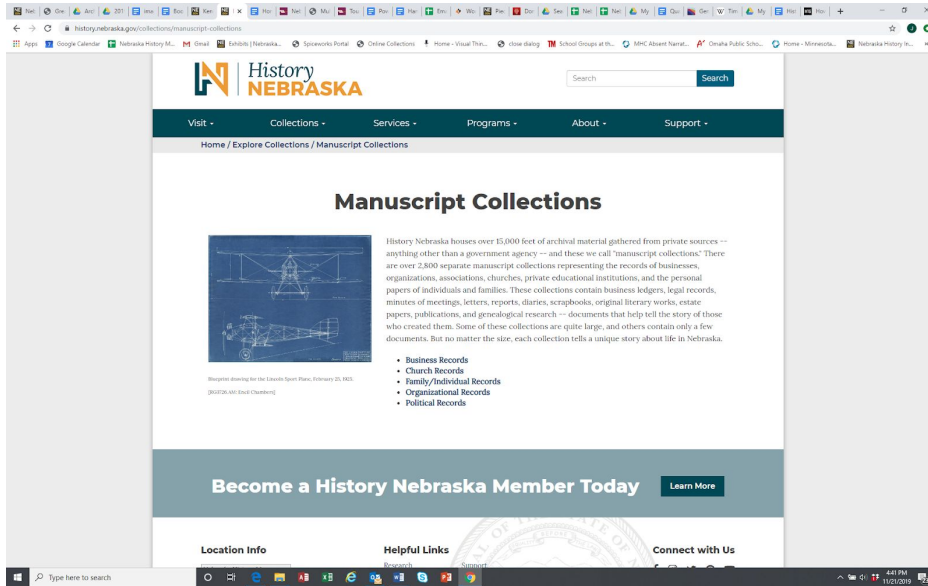

Manuscripts Short-Cut

Manuscripts = business ledgers, legal records, minutes of meetings, letters, reports, diaries, scrapbooks, original literary works, estate papers, publications, and genealogical research

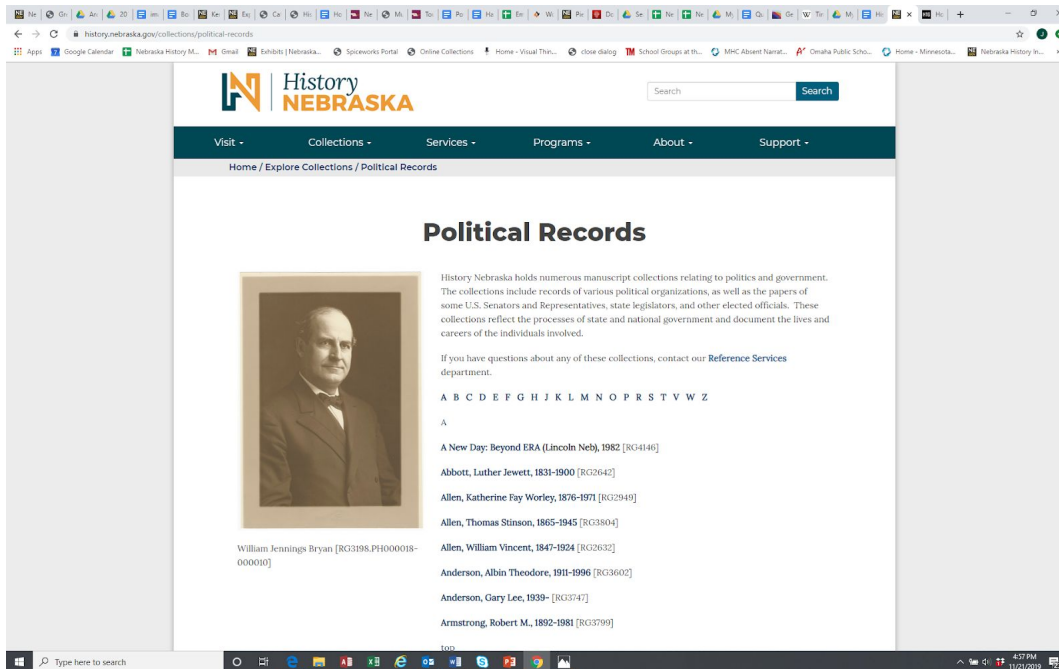

Hover over “Collections” and click on “Manuscript Finding Aids” or click here <https://history.nebraska.gov/collections/manuscript-collections>

Finding History Day Sources at

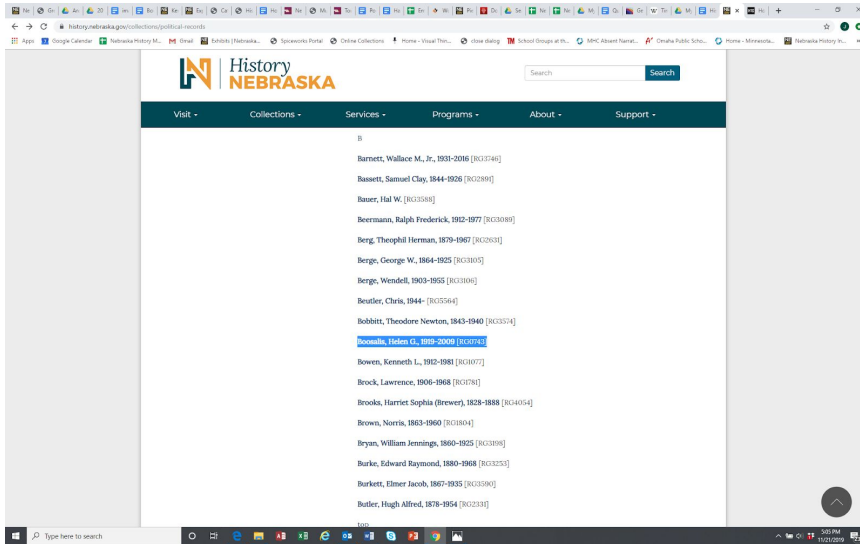

Any of these categories bulleted and listed above in blue (Business Records, Church Records, etc.) are links to alpha-ordered collection listings such as this one for Political Records.

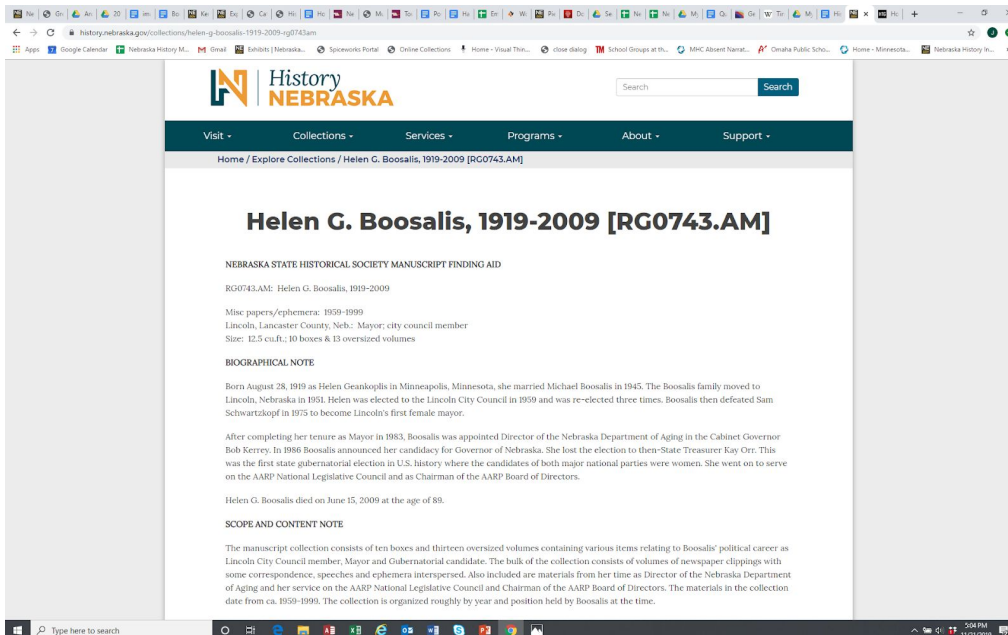

Then each entry in blue, is a link to a collection, such as this one. It was in the list as Boosalis, Helen G.

Finding History Day Sources at

And here's what the page with the collection description looks like. The collection description contains background on the individual and then a listing of the primary source materials which will be found inside. Helen Boosalis' collection has 10 boxes of primary source materials.

Finding History Day Sources at

What if I find something in a manuscript collection I like?

To see it in the Reference Room

In Person - Some photos are in folders and can be handled, when wearing gloves, other photo collections are on microfilm, which the staff will show you how to use

Can I get a copy?

In Person - the staff can make a photocopy for you for 25 cents/copy
OR you can take a photo with your cell phone